

Archaeological Summer School
LIVING DANUBE LIMES
DTP3-359-2.2.

Principal:

Budapesti Műszaki és Gazdaságtudományi Egyetem
Budapest University of Technology and Economics,
BME, Department of History of Architecture and Monument Preservation
1111 Budapest, Műegyetem rkp. 3.
VAT: HU15308799

Contact person:

Gergő Máté Kovács
gergomatekovacs@gmail.com

Content of service:

The content of the service is the organisation of an archaeological summer school in cooperation with Budapest University of Technology and Economics and Institute of Archaeology, Belgrade. The archaeological summer school is on the thematic of “How to make invisible – visible, Archeological Methodology and Presentation in the Digital era”. The summer school is deliverable no. D.T1.3.1 of the Interreg DTP Project “Living Danube Limes”. The description of the organisation is the following:

Description
Archaeological Summer School VIMINACIUM – Organisation of the virtual online summer school – part 1 (Technical support, Equipment, Organization of the virtual conference, Internet and video link) – 5 days
- Organisation of the practical workshop 2 - 5 September
I – Bus transfer (25 persons) (Bus transfer from Belgrade to Viminacium, Bus transfer from Viminacium to Belgrade, and further transfer to Novi Sad)
II – Organisation of excursion Viminacium - Kladovo (Bus transfer, tickets to sites and museums, Lunch on the go)
III - Organisation of excursion Viminacium – Lederata (Bus transfer, tickets to sites and museums, Lunch on the go)
IV – Rent of the office space and conference halls (September 2-3)
V – Technical support and expenses related to use of equipment, organization of the practical workshops,
VI – Organization of activities for the Viminacium Archaeological Summer School

Gergő Máté Kovács
Research Fellow, PhD
Budapest University of Technology and Economics
Department of History of Architecture and Monument Preservation